

See Finch First

Hello, I am Brian Finch, and I am excited to introduce the all new Finch Chevrolet Cadillac Buick GMC. Over the past 6 months, through the phase out of the Pontiac, Saturn, Saab, and Hummer brands, General Motors reduced the number of dealerships in London from 6 to 3. My staff and I are thrilled to be one of the remaining 3 dealerships servicing the London market. But there is a catch, the old location of Brian Finch Pontiac Buick GMC at 300 Southdale is now the new home of Finch Hyundai. And my new GM dealership, Finch Chevrolet Cadillac Buick GMC has moved to 640 Wonderland, just South of Oxford (former home of London Motor Products). We are proud to be selling and servicing all the remaining General Motors brand. If you have any questions or comments, please email me at welovecars@seefinchfirst.com. We appreciate your business and look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

Brian Finch
